

Wedding

York and Scrofani

Wesley York and Robert Scrofani

Wesley York of New York and Robert Scrofani of Norwalk were united in marriage at 2 p.m. Aug. 29 at The Bartlett Arboretum and Gardens in Stamford by Peggy Villani, Justice of the Peace.

York is the son of Dolores York of Westbrook, Maine and the late Wesley York. Scrofani is the son of Emanuel Scrofani of Fairfield and the late Gina Scrofani.

Dean York, brother of Wesley York, and Gary Scrofani, brother of Robert Scrofani, were the best men. Gary York, brother of Wesley York, and Richard Scrofani and Steven Scrofani, nephews of Robert Scrofani, were the groomsmen.

Beverly Blanchard, soprano, accompanied on the piano by Robert Scrofani, performed a wedding song composed by Wesley York.

A reception was held at The Bartlett Arboretum and Gardens. A honeymoon trip was taken to Las Vegas.

York graduated from Watkinson School in Hartford. He received a bachelor's degree in English literature from Clark University and a bachelor's degree in music and a master's degree with honors in music composition from the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston. He is the administrator of the Aaron Copland Fund For Music, New York City.

Scrofani graduated from Andrew Warde High School in Fairfield. He received a bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Connecticut, Storrs. Recently retired, he was employed for 27 years at UST, Inc, Greenwich and Stamford as computer software developer and IT Support Analyst.

The couple resides in Norwalk.
